DODDS, W., Pte., 11th O.Q. (Royal West Kent Regt.)
He volunteered in August 1915, and was drafted to France in May of the following year. While in France he was wounded in many important engagements, including those at Loos, the Somme and Arras. He was severely wounded in May 1917, being hit in the leg and face, and was invalided home to hospital, where his leg was amputated. After fifteen months' medical treatment he was discharged in September 1918, as physically unfit for further duty, and holds the 1914-15 Star, and the General Service and Victory Medals.
11, Restwood Street, Diphedon, S.E.8. Z5149

DODGE, J. E. Pte., R.A.M.C. and 20th London Regt.
He volunteered in August 1915 and was drafted to France in August 1916, for service with the 4th London Infantry. In September 1916 he was invalided home and after prolonged medical treatment was discharged as physically unfit for further duty in January 1919. He holds the 1914-15 Star, and the General Service and Victory Medals.
11, Goldsmith Road, Peckham, S.E.15. Z555A

DOLDING, F., Stoker, R.N.
He joined in 1916, and after a period of training was posted in 1917 to H.M.S. "Moreby" for duty in the North Sea. He did much valuable work with his ship around the coasts of Great Britain until the conclusion of hostilities. He holds the General Service and Victory Medals, and in 1920 was still serving at sea.
19, Marlton Street, Greenwich, S.E.10. 3555B

DOLDING, G., Sapper, R.E.
He joined in 1917, and later in the same year proceeded to the Western Front. During his service there he did very valuable work in connection with the Military Railways in the Somme, Ypres, and Arras sectors until hostilities ceased. He was demobilised in 1919, and holds the General Service and Victory Medals.
56, Marlton Street, Greenwich, S.E.10. 3555A

DOLDING, J., Sergt., 51st Bedfordshire Regt.
He joined in October 1916, and after his training passed his examination as physical training instructor. He was engaged on important duties in this capacity until October 1918, when he was drafted to France. He was discharged on February 1919, where he again did valuable work as an Instructor. He returned home and was demobilised in January 1919, and holds the General Service and Victory Medals.
11, Goldsmith Road, Peckham, S.E.15. Z555B

Volunteering in August 1915, he was drafted to France in the following March, and during his service overseas did excellent work in gun work in the Gwenu, Ypres, and Cambrai, and the Offensives of 1918. After the Armistice he proceeded to Germany with the Armistice Occupation and rendered valuable services on the Rhine until July 1919, when he returned home, and was demobilised. He holds the General Service and Victory Medals.
64, Marlton Street, New Cross, S.E.14. Z555A

DOLLINGS, E., Special War Volunteer.
Though anxious to serve, he was rejected as medically unfit for the Army, and throughout the war served as a special Volunteer with the South Metropolitan Gas Company, Old Kent Road, where he did valuable work in the production of gas for use at the front. His services were highly valued, and in 1921 he still was with the same Company.
213, Summer Road, Peckham, S.E.15. Z555

DOLPHIN, H. T., Private, M.G.C.
He joined in April 1917, and after his training was drafted to France, where he did excellent service in various engagements in various sectors for about ten months. He then contracted fever, and after being invalided home in October 1918, and receiving medical treatment in Sheffield and Scotland, was demobilised in January 1919. He holds the General Service and Victory Medals.
29, Glenall Road, Peckham, S.E.13. Z188-SC

DOMINNINY, S., Gunner, R.F.A.
Mobilised at the outbreak of hostilities he was drafted to France in 1915, and fought at St. Eloi, Ypres, Pestybert, Loos, Albert, Vimy Ridge, Beaumont-Hamel, Bullecourt, Messines, Passchendaele, Lens, Bapaume, Béthune and Cambrai, and was wounded and passed. After the Armistice he was sent to Germany, being stationed at Cologne until his return to England for demobilisation in March 1919. He holds the 1914-15 Star, and the General Service and Victory Medals.
43, Dennesett Road, New Cross, S.E.14. Z555B

DOMINNINY, W. L., Gunner, R.F.A.
Mobilised at the outbreak of hostilities he was drafted to France in the following year and served at Hill 60, Ypres, Pestybert, Loos, Albert, Vimy Ridge, Beaumont-Hamel, Bullecourt, Messines, Passchendaele, Lens, Bapaume, Béthune and Cambrai, and was wounded and passed. After the Armistice he was sent to Germany, being stationed at Cologne until his return to England for demobilisation in March 1919. He holds the 1914-15 Star, and the General Service and Victory Medals.
43, Dennesett Road, New Cross, S.E.14. Z555A

DONALDSON, W., Gunner, R.G.A.
He volunteered in August 1915, and after completing his training was retained at Shoeburyness on special work in testing guns before they were transported overseas. He did continuously good work throughout hostilities and was demobilised in January 1919.
38, Akeld Street, Swindon, S.E.26. Z789B

Source: National Roll Of The Great War 1914-1918 Section XII1