

Source : The War Illustrated 10th July 1915

5885 Serjeant C.F. Hayman, 1st Bn., C. Gds. (LG 30 June 1915).

For conspicuous gallantry and ability on the 25th January, 1915, in defence of Cuinchy Keep. When heavily attacked he rallied men of different regiments and brought them into action, showing a splendid example of devotion to duty on this as on several other occasions.

Source : UK Citations of the Distinguished Conduct Medal, 1914-1920