

L./CPL. T. B. RADCLIFFE
(U.C.S. 1910-13)

Radcliffe, Thomas Bellingham (U.C.S. 1910-13), L./Cpl. 8th Batt. Royal Fusiliers, killed on July 7, 1916, in his 18th year. House U.

“ As we did not get the news until the end of August last,
I am afraid there is little hope of a further account.”

[Letter from parent, February 21, 1917.]

Source : University College School Hampstead Roll Of Service 1914-1918

SERGEANT THOMAS BELLINGHAM RADCLIFFE (1914).
8th Service Battalion Royal Fusiliers.

Born 18th June, 1898. On leaving Dulwich he was apprenticed to engineering at Leeds, but in January, 1915, he joined the 7th Battalion Royal Fusiliers at Hounslow, later transferring to the 8th Service Battalion at Falmouth, going to France in March, 1916. He fell in action at La Boiselle, on the Somme, on 7th July, 1916.

Source : Dulwich College War Record 1914-1919